

1950

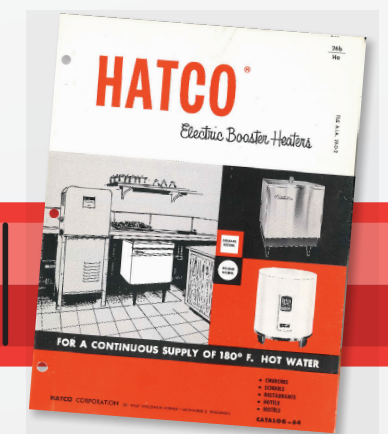

Hatco Corporation begins with the innovative invention of the Powermite® Electric Booster Water Heater

1950's

1966

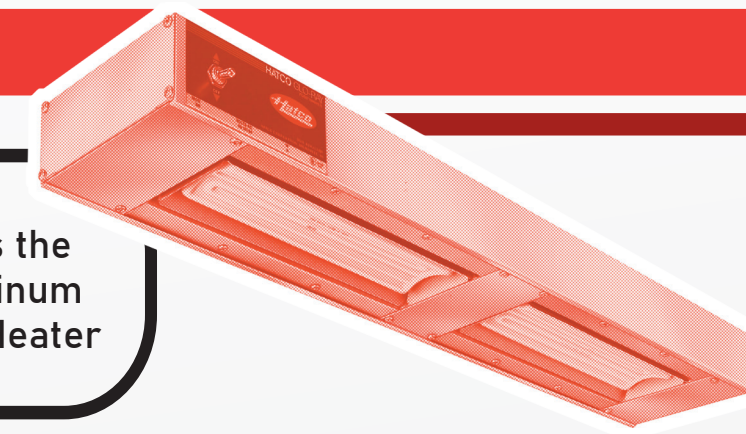

Hatco expands with the introduction of the Toast King® Conveyor Toaster
Hatco outgrows its original facilities and moves manufacturing and offices to its current Milwaukee, WI location

1960's

1970

Hatco launches the Glo-Ray® Aluminum Infrared Strip Heater

1973

Hatco moves manufacturing from Milwaukee, WI to Sturgeon Bay, WI

1970's

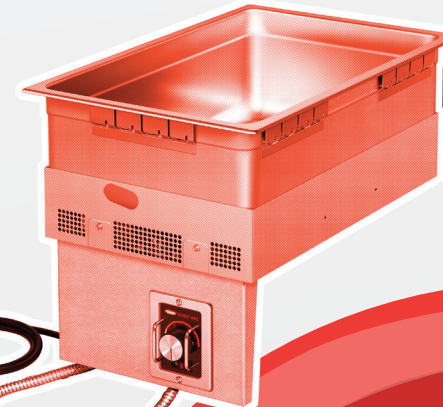

1979

Hatco introduces the Flav-R-Savor® Holding & Display Cabinet

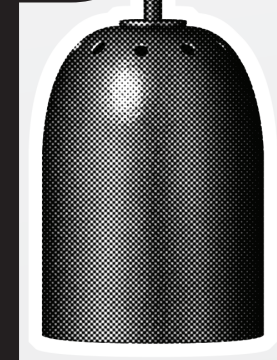

2004

Hatco begins its Employee Ownership Stock Plan (ESOP) and is 100% employee-owned by 2007

2003

Hatco introduces Decorative Lamps

2002

Hatco holds its first Hatco U

2000

Beginning in 2000, Hatco is voted "Best in Class" by Dealers, Operators, and Consultants for 17 consecutive years

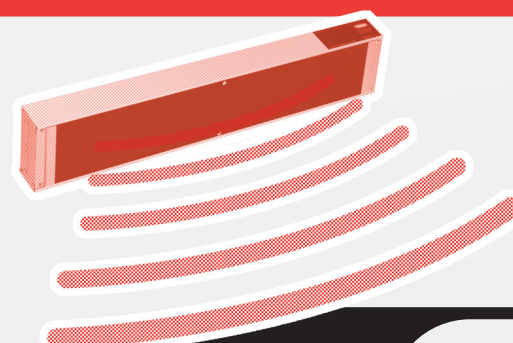

1999

Hatco throws its first NAFEM party
Hatco implements Demand Flow Technology (DFT) to optimize the manufacturing process

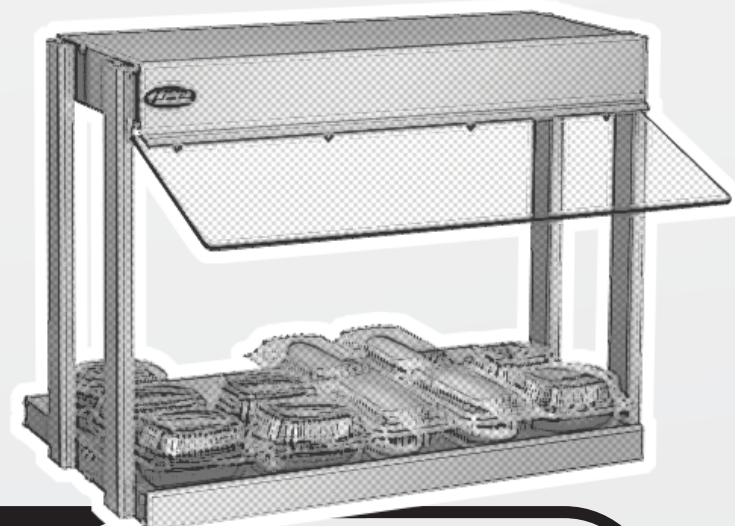

1994

Hatco introduces the Glo-Ray® Infra-Black® Aluminum Strip Heater

1988

Hatco introduces the Glo-Ray® Merchandising Warmer

1983

Hatco updates its logo to the classic red oval logo

1980's

1990's

2000's

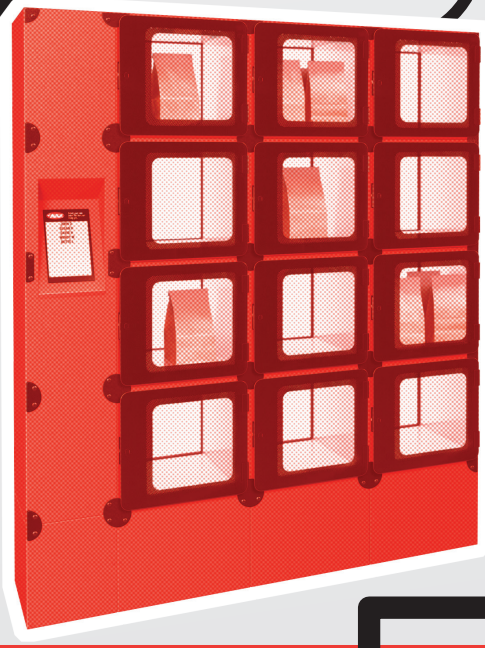

2008

Hatco opens its SIP manufacturing plant in China to support international market growth

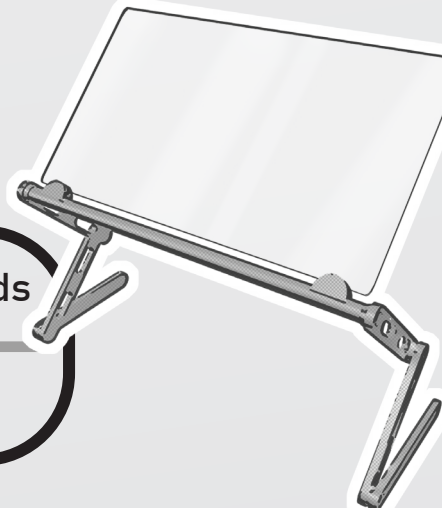

2020

Hatco launches the Flav-R 2-Go® Food Locker System

2022

Hatco launches Flav-R-Shield® Sneeze Guards
Hatco acquires American Range and FWE

2023

Hatco releases the Drop-In Induction Dry Well

1985

The Sales Department starts the tradition of sending out fun Christmas cards

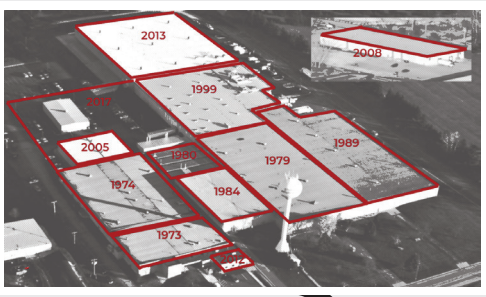

2015

Hatco launches the Chef LED Light Bulb

2013

Completes 10th factory expansion, expanding footprint to 350K sq. ft.
Hatco acquires Ovention, Inc.

2010's

2020's

AND BEYOND

2011

Hatco introduces the Heated Zone Merchandiser, an industry first

2012

Hatco launches the Remote Refrigerated Drop-In Well and Remote Drop-In Frost Top

2016

Hatco releases the Rapide Cuisine® Countertop and Built-In Induction Ranges

2021

Hatco acquires ADM

2025

Hatco celebrates its 75th Anniversary and launches its new logo

